

Gurdwara and Guru Granth Sahib

About Gurdwara:

A Gurdwara is the place of worship for Sikhs.

The word "Gurdwara" means
"Gateway to the Guru."

It is a sacred space where Guru
Granth Sahib Ji, the holy scripture of Sikhism, is placed and respected.

Every Gurdwara welcomes people of all religions, castes, and backgrounds.

Inside the Gurdwara, people pray, sing shabads (hymns), and listen to Kirtan.

A Langar (free community kitchen) is served to everyone, symbolizing equality and service.

---

About Guru Granth Sahib Ji:

Guru Granth Sahib Ji is the eternal Guru of the Sikhs.

It contains the spiritual teachings of Sikh Gurus and saints from various backgrounds.

It is written in Gurmukhi script

Sikhs bow down before Guru Granth Sahib Ji with deep respect.

The teachings promote truth, love, equality, and devotion to God.

